In making this application, I understand I will agree to abide by and support school policy. When I have a question concerning this, I will contact the school administration to seek a clearer understanding. I also commit the discipline of my child (ren) to those in charge while he /she is in school. Notification will be given to parents by phone / letter of disciplinary action needed and/or given. My cooperation is expected in the following: regular tuition payments, volunteering opportunities, faithful prayer support, and support of the procedures and disciplines of the school. I understand that the school reserves the right to dismiss any student who does not respect the standards or who will not respond and cooperate in its educational endeavor.
